

WEBINAR

A University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities (UCEDD)
Department of Child & Family Studies • College of Behavioral & Community Sciences • University of South Florida

Transition Basics: Information for Families and Others Who Support Students with Disabilities

Project 10

OCTOBER 19, 2021, 4:30 P.M. EST – 6:00 P.M. EST

ADVANCED REGISTRATION: <https://bit.ly/3ysdIGB> After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

THIS PRESENTATION reviews research on the importance of family involvement, transition services, individual educational plan (IEP) components, self-advocacy and self-determination, responsibilities of schools, families and students, and resources supporting family involvement in transition planning. The goal of this training is to help families of students with disabilities and others who support students with disabilities understand the secondary transition process and how best to participate in student post-school success.

FEEL FREE TO PARTICIPATE IN DISCUSSIONS, share experiences, and receive technical assistance in the application of strategies, resources, and best practices to increase employment of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities. All viewers are eligible to receive certificates of attendance. If you do not have access to a computer with speakers, utilize the Zoom phone number meeting ID/Password, provided upon registration. Closed Captioning provided. Please contact Denise R. Barnes at 813-974-2581 if other accommodation needs are warranted. Attendees may submit questions in advance to drbarnes@usf.edu. For more information, contact Denise R. Barnes, MA, FCIC Employment Coordinator at drbarnes@usf.edu or 813-974-1063.

SPEAKER/PRESENTER

LISA FRIEDMAN-CHAVEZ is the Project 10 Regional Transition Representative for South Florida. She provides training and technical assistance to 12 school districts and relevant stakeholders in the area of secondary transition. She has worked in the fields of social services and education, with a focus on supporting individuals with disabilities, for more than 23 years. Prior to working with Project 10, Ms. Friedman-Chavez worked on several grants at the University of South Florida, including the Partners in Transition Training and Technical Assistance Project, the Students Website on Employment and Transition, and the Start-up Florida Project. Ms. Friedman-Chavez also coordinated the Supported Employment and Supported Living programs for the Agency for Persons with Disabilities office serving Miami-Dade and Monroe Counties.

